

positions 28.3 Special Issue – Cold War Feminisms in East Asia

Editor – Suzy KIM

Cold War Feminisms in East Asia: Introduction

Suzy KIM

The “Modern Girl” is a Communist: March 8th and China’s Proletarian Women’s Movement, 1925–27

John M. KNIGHT

“Isahama Women Farmers” Against Enclosure: A Rejection of the Property Relation in US-Occupied Okinawa

Wendy MATSUMURA

From Seoul to Paris: Transnational Character in the Work of the Korean National Council of Women in Authoritarian South Korea

Katri KAUKANEN

Gendered Globality as a Cold War Framework: International Dimensions of Chinese Female Bodies in the 1960s

Tina Mai CHEN

From Violated Girl to Revolutionary Woman: The Politics of Sexual Difference from China to North Korea

Suzy KIM

Cold War Shadows of Japan’s Imperial Legacies for Women in East Asia

Kozue AKIBAYASHI

Epilogue

Tani BARLOW